Re: Ralph R. Harper
Scoutmaster, Troop 215

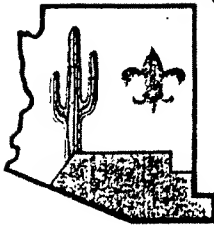

Following up Paul Ernst memo of June 5, I talked with Ralph Harper and he indicates that he realized there was a problem in the past but it has been cleared up in Superior Court and he was found not guilty. He also stated that he has a registration card expiring in January, 1975, and he has no intentions of giving it up unless the Boy Scouts of America brings charges against him. I told Mr. Harper that I personally did not know what the earlier problem was, but if he would not agree to resign as Scoutmaster, we would have to discuss it with the Department of Corrections where the unit meets and with the Desert Kiwanis Club, their sponsor. He then told me that he wanted to be very cooperative and help clear up this matter. He indicated that it was his understanding with the council back east that he could be a registered scouter with the Boy Scouts. He stated that the incident arose out of a campout where he was alone with twenty scouts. One of the scouts charged that he was "involved" with him. Mr. Harper stated that he fought the matter in Superior Court for almost one year and won the case. He stated that the legal fees were slightly over $70,000. He states that this boy is emotionally disturbed and was under psychiatric treatment prior to the incident and is still under treatment for a problem not related to the incident. He states that he was completely exonerated by the Superior Court and the council records where it occurred indicates that he was cleared and he was told that he could reregister as Scoutmaster of that troop. He claims to have been born in the town and lived there for twenty-five years. He stated that only because of personal embarrassment to his wife, he moved west.

Through a confidential source, I had him run through the Tucson City Police files, Pima County, and Arizona State Criminal Records Section. They all came back negative with no incidents relating to Mr. Harper. There was a note in the city file where three of his sons were picked up for loitering on railroad property. The officer's report indicated that they were camping out and the railroad complained. There were no charges filed and the boys were sent home.

Dear Mike

Just a little over a year ago the Scoutmaster of Boscawen, N.H. got into some trouble. One of the Scouts in his troop (384) told his Parents that Ralph Harper Jr. had engaged him in an act of oral intercourse. Then the proverbial feces hit the fan. Other boys admitted the same act. I recieved confidential information from an official of the State Police that he had talked with 16 other boys involved and that without a doubt 'that Scoutmaster was guilty as hell'. I then went to Boscawen and talked to the Troop Chairman and Ast. Scoutmaster and we obtained Harper's resignation. (see enclosed copy.) I then put my chaplains' bars on and had a long talk with Harper's wife and she confided in me of past incidents which she thought nothing of at the time. She said she heard some boys say at one time 'Well It was Mr Harpers turn to get you last night. '

Well to make a long story short he was arrested, indicted, went to court and was found innocent. The Boscawen church refused to recharter the troop which we reregistered under a group of citizens. Ralph 'Sonney' Harper and his family moved to parts unknown this summer. Last week one of our district scouts recieved correspondence from him telling of his new envolvmnts in Scouting and of his visit to Philmont. Mike, I am afraid that Harper will be getting into trouble again even though the court declared him innocent. Wes Kibby, Director of Field Services here in Daniel Webster thought you would want to know about this case and would know how to discretely handle it. Mr. Harper's address is -Box 95, Cortaro Arizona 85230..

Dear Mr Kingsbury

It is with much regret that I read and accept your letter of March 20th.

I was optimistic that a solution to the problems, of which I am aware and sympathetic to, could be solved.

I do however have a challenge to make to the Diaconate and Religious Education Committee, as I know you are still interested in a program for youth that stands for Character building, citizenship training, physical fitness and religious development that Scouting promotes. According to this years school census there are 106

Boscaawen boys of Scouting Age. Troop 384 will be rechartering under new sponsorship serving about 30 boys. This leaves 70 Boscaawen boys that are not getting the Scouting Program. At the present rapid growth of Boscaawen and its influx of young families, two troops are needed to make Scouting available to those boys that want to belong.

I would be happy to talk to your committees about a new troop under YOUR leadership meeting in YOUR facilities.

Yours for Scouting
